

ATTENTION 5TH GRADE FAMILIES!! IMPORTANT NEWS ABOUT INMAN'S 2011-2012 "TRANSITION IN" PROGRAM

1st Transition In Meeting: "An Introduction to Inman," November 3, 2011 (Thursday), 6:30pm-8:00pm in the Inman Middle School Media Center (Adults only). Ms. Paula Herrema and members of her staff will present a general overview of Inman Middle School. As time permits, parents and guardians may ask questions. This event is for adults only and there will be no childcare available. The next parent event will be in February 2012!!

Inman's Mailing to the Rising In-Zone 6th Grade Families – Be on the Lookout!! In October, Inman will mail to all Centennial Place, Mary Lin, Morningside and Springdale Park in-zone 5th grade families the 2011-2012 Inman "Transition In" material. Included in that material is a special welcome from Ms. Herrema, this year's "Transition In" schedule, a list of documents required for registration and other important information just for rising 6th grade families.

If you live in an area zoned to attend Inman Middle School and do not receive your transition mailing from Inman by the end of October, please contact Inman's 6th Grade Counselor, Ms. Tina Blevins, at tblevins2@atlanta.k12.ga.us or 404.802.3215. Parents of all 5th grade students zoned to Inman, but who are not currently enrolled in one of Inman's feeder elementary schools listed above, should also contact Ms. Blevins if they plan to attend Inman next year so that you can receive future in-zone mailings.
